

ch saying /sh/

Arriving in Style

Today, we are learning to write words that contain ch saying /sh/.

We will also remind ourselves of the other sounds that ch makes!

ch

Let's practise reading some of this week's focus words:

parachute

chute

chef

Now, let's write them.

chef

parachute

chute

It was Saturday and it was the day of the Christmas fair at school. Kit, Sam, Mum and Dad were all ready to leave the house. "Have you two got your money with you?" asked Dad.

"I have mine," replied Sam.

"Oops, I forgot! I will go and get mine!" said Kit. The children were excited because they would get to see Santa at the Christmas fair, as well as be able to buy some Christmas crafts and toys.

As they arrived at school, there was a crowd of children and adults outside in the playground. Tess and her Dad were there. Tess said to Sam and Kit, "You have made it just in time!"

Read the Sign

There is a sign at the side of where the children are standing. Can you work out what the smudged words are and write them down?

Hint: They are all ch words saying /ch/, /sh/ or /c/.

Christmas Week Plans

The school chef will make a Christmas dinner for the children. Then, the teachers will set up some parachute games after dinner.

Kit's Thoughts

Kit reads the sign and thinks of some of his own ch words.
Can you write down what he is thinking?
Use the pictures to help you.

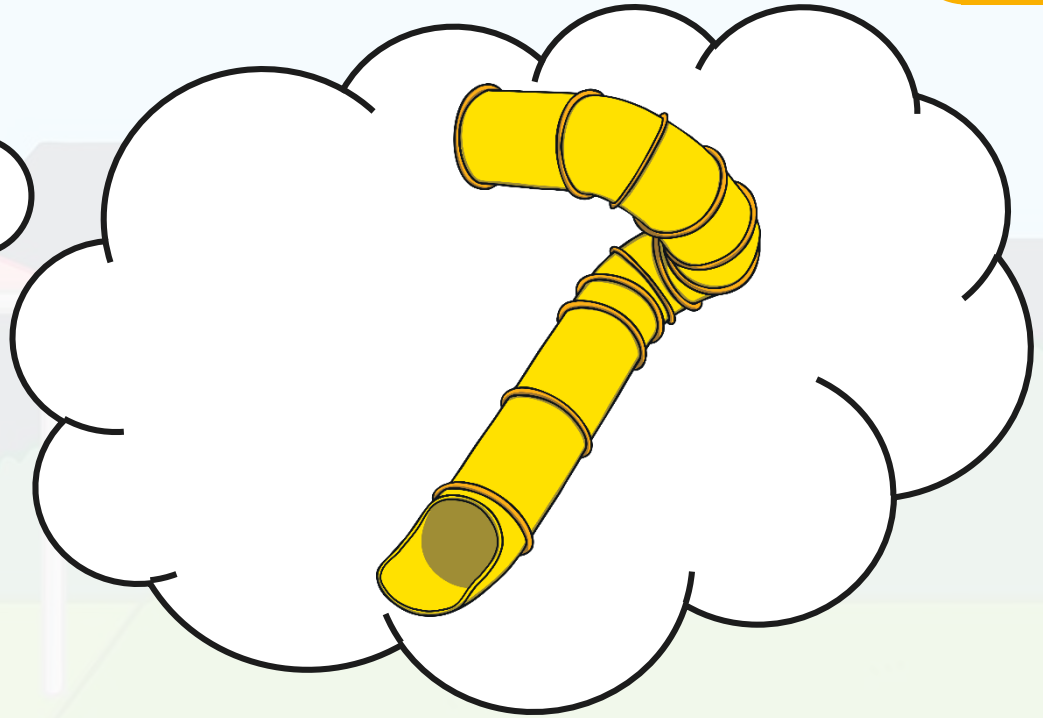

chef

Show

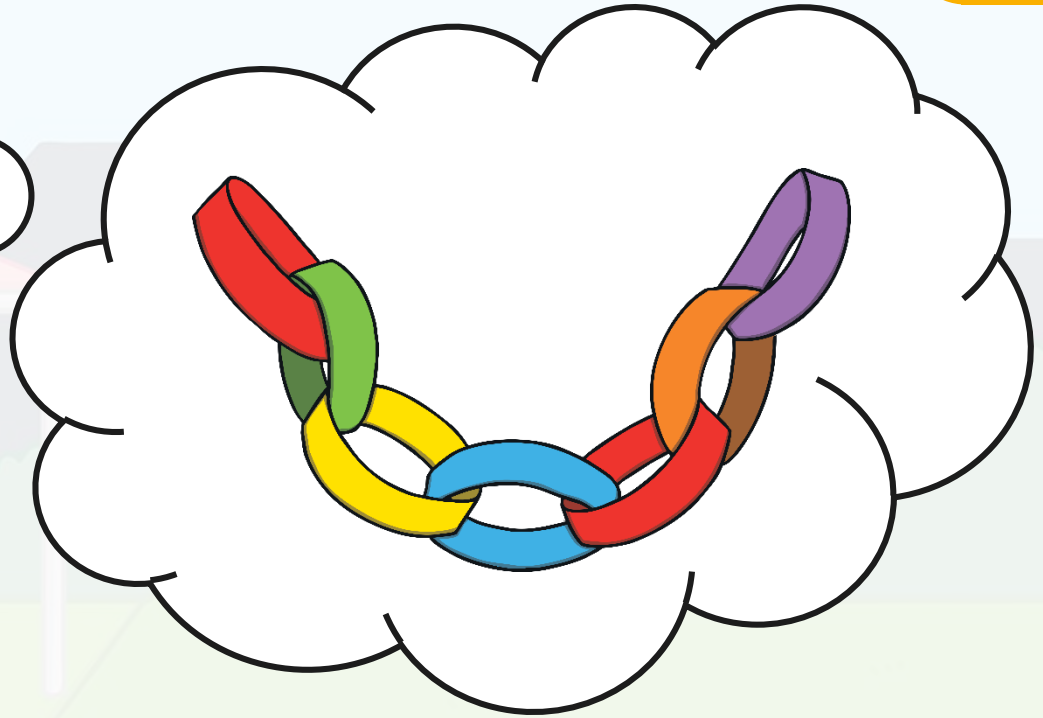

chute

Show

chain

Show

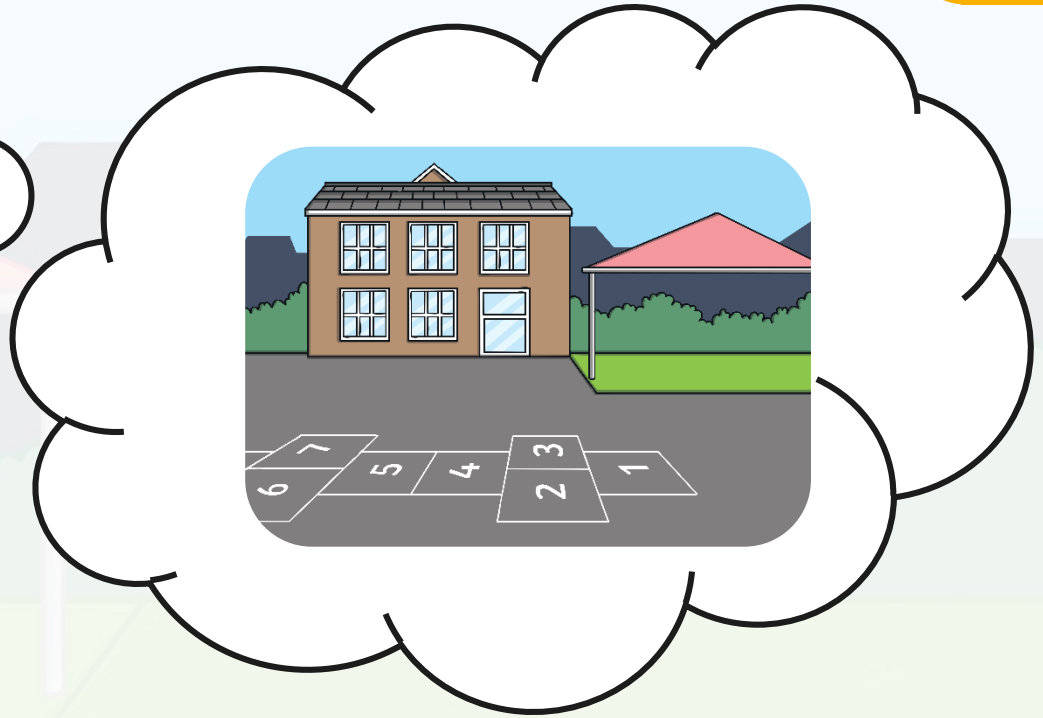

parachute

Show

school

Show

"Santa is arriving any moment!" exclaimed Tess. Kit, Sam and Tess all let out a little squeal of excitement.

"Will he be arriving on his sleigh?" asked Sam.

Sentence Time

How will Santa arrive?
Write a sentence to match the picture.

He will come down through the air in a parachute.

Just then, some Christmas music started to play and there in the sky was Santa himself, coming down in a parachute! The crowd of people watched in amazement and cheered loudly.

Santa flew through the air and landed on the playground! “Wow! I thought he would arrive in a sleigh. That was so cool!” cried an excited Kit.

"This is going to be the best Christmas fair ever! I cannot wait to see what else happens!" exclaimed Kit.

Today, we have learnt...

ch saying /sh/

The adventure continues next lesson!