Permanent
Closing Date 7/12/26 Interview Date TBA

Kingswood Primary School is looking to appoint an enthusiastic, self-motivated and reliable Midday Supervisor to join our friendly lunchtime team. Our children are brilliantly behaved and lots of fun to talk to! This role will include supervising the children while they eat their lunch and play outside, alongside putting up and clearing away tables and benches.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Setting up and cleaning the hall for lunch
- Supervision of the children in the hall whilst eating
- Providing a safe, fun environment for the children in their classrooms during poor weather conditions
- Providing an inclusive and engaging environment for children outside during play time
- Caring for minor injuries and administering basic first aid

Previous experience is not essential and suitable training will be provided where needed. The post is for Friday 12.00-1.00pm.

Applications must be made on the Gloucestershire County Council schools application form, available by downloading from the school website, or from the school office.
